Context:

National context

Oasis Hubs are local places of activity that provide integrated, high quality and diverse services to benefit the whole person and the whole community. The Oasis ethos stems from our Christ-centred roots and is an expression of our character - it is a declaration of who we are and therefore the lens through which we assess all we do. This is encapsulated by the following five statements: a passion to include everyone; a desire to treat everyone equally, respecting differences; a commitment to healthy and open relationships; a deep sense of hope that things can change and be transformed; a sense of perseverance to keep going for the long haul.

An Oasis Hub is a community movement and the joining together of all the work Oasis does in any one place, which could include foodbanks, debt advice centres, family support and advice services, healthcare, youth work, children's work and formal education through Oasis primary and secondary Academies. The purpose of the Hub is to serve the whole person and the whole community and to ensure that people are able to flourish socially, physically, emotionally, spiritually, educationally, environmentally, morally.

As part of the Oasis family Oasis Community Partnerships (OCP) oversees all of Oasis' youth and community work, and is the parent charity to 18 local Hub charities. The Oasis Community Hub Leader leads the work of the local Hub charity as part of the wider Oasis vision.

Local Context of the Hub

The North Bristol Hub comprises three Oasis Academies, OA Brightstowe, OA Longcross and OA Bankleaze. An Oasis Hub supports the Academy(ies) community (students and their families) directly by helping young people and their families to overcome the wide-ranging community barriers that could prevent them from achieving their potential. In doing so as part of the wider local community, the Oasis Community Hub: North Bristol charity provides youth and community development interventions, which support educational attainment. The charity has a small core team of staff and group of volunteers and the current focus is Family Support, Holiday Provision, Volunteering, Youth mentoring, employability and NEET prevention. We are looking for an experienced Community Hub Leader who will take the Hub Charity to the next stage of development and grow the local community movement.
